

As a private, nonprofit academic health system, Premier Health takes pride in serving residents of Southwest Ohio. One of the largest comprehensive health systems in the region, Premier Health offers five inpatient hospital campuses; an urgent care network; free-standing emergency departments; a large primary and specialty care network; behavioral health services; comprehensive laboratory services and home health services. It is led by a locally based board of trustees.

Our hospitals have been recognized for their quality by U.S. News & World Report, Healthgrades, and others. Our facilities are accredited by The Joint Commission; American College of Emergency Physicians; American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer; and others.

In 2025, Premier Health invested $239.3 million in free care and other unpaid services to low-income families. The health system also invested $45.3 million in community projects and services.

Through its academic affiliation with Wright State University and the Boonshoft School of Medicine, Premier Health supports medical education, clinical research, and the development of the region's future health care workforce.

Premier Health advances community well-being by integrating compassionate care with education, research, and innovation.

Patients have convenient access to care through Premier Physician Network and our growing urgent care and telemedicine services.

Premier Health has three CareFlight helicopters – the area's first and fastest air ambulance service – and four Mobile Intensive Care Units.

Premier Health is a leader in promoting workplace inclusion and embracing diverse perspectives and cultures to help ensure high-quality care for all.
